The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want . . .

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters . . .

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake . . .

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over . . .

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Descendants of Christopher Day (16 -1746)

3000 Nathaniel Day married Susan Wyler, daughter of James Wyler (Willey?) Susan Wyley Day was killed by the Shawnee Indians about 1756 in Frederick County Virginia; she was apparently a widow at that time. A Nathaniel Day of this family died in 1754 (Christopher Day - #2000 was his executor) but this may have been another Nathaniel, possibly a brother of Christopher. There is indication Nathaniel - #3000 - serve in the French and Indian War, which took place between 1754 and 1763.

4000 John Day, b. June 10, 1742, in Bucks County, Pennsylvania; serve in the Revolution as an Ensign (an Army rank in those days) and as an Indian Spy in that part of Botetourt County, Virginia, which is now Pocahontas County, West Virginia; married Esther ______ prior to 1785 (there is some indication that her last name may have been Drennin); moved in 1785 to that part of green County, North Carolina, which later became Jefferson County, Tennessee; in 1833 he applied for a pension as a Revolutionary Veteran. The pension application and the supporting affidavit of his son, John Day, Jr. - #5001 - contain details of his Indian fighting, including the killing of his brother, David and his mother, Susan Wyle Day, and the capture and rescue of his sisters, Sarah and Martha. This application is included here in as appendix "B." John Day died December 4 1833, in Jefferson County, Tennessee. There is a court record in that county of the settlement of his estate.

John Day had at least 10 children (#5000 - 5009)

5000 Levi Day 1776-1854). See separate outline of his dependants

5001 John Day, Jr., born January 31, 1768, by the time he was a small boy he was in that sec-

Hi,
I remember my grandmother, Augusta Marmer Melms, nee Gruevonder, we called her Marmer, she was born in Bern, Germandy in 1875, she immagrated to the U.S., she married at age 18 (I believe her birthday was in July, she would joke that our celebration for the 4th of July was just for her independance,too. She spoke both English and German. Grandpa Edmund was both sherrif of Milwaukee (there is a park still in the downtown area named after him, he was beloved of the town.) They built the original baseball field, Grandpa and Grandma- he even named their first team as he was pitcher for the team-The brewers! His best friend was George (Babe) Ruth, grandpa even had to put Mae West into jail for violating the ordinance for indecency-She had put the play (she wrote, produced and of course stared in-'SEX', seems that the Pabst Theatre was out of bounds to her, but she did it anyway. Grandpa watched the show, then arrested Mae, put her into jail, the doors were left open so that she could talk to the press-as it was a stunt!) It all started with four brothers who owned an island off of Russia's coast, the Czar wanted it-Peter the Great! Between them they shared one million rubles! One went to St Petersberg, one went to Germany proper, one went to Paris, and last one stayed. The German one learned the art of brewing beer, took it's receipes to the new land of opportunity-U.S.A. The Chicago fire-Mrs. O'Leary's cow started it, BEST BEER, sent caseloads of beer to help out as water was scarce and people cooked with it as well as drank it-a blue ribbon was given to family, but their generousity bankrupt them so a guy named Pabst bought them -reciepe et al. When Grandpa died, my father was only 13 at the time and ill with rhuematic fever, the city gave the two story house that they had built to her -tax free. And a small stippend to live off of and raise my father. My father was a metal winner during WW2, pilot of B17-Edmund had helped him learn to fly a plane! He was even decorated by the King and Queen of England saved an entire village, by risking his onw landing just beyond a village during a crash landing. I only remember meeeting Uncle Edmund twice,once when they came out to Milwaukee to visit and the last in 1962, summer in El Cajon, Ca.Oh, Uncle Edmund gave me my name!

Burial==

From Comanche County Gravestone Inscriptions the locaation of Zion Hill Cemetery is that it is located northwest of the Vandyke community in Comanche County and may be reached by taking Highway #16 north from Comanche. About six miles out, the cemetery can be seen on the left of the highway across a field. Turn left onto a county road and follow it around to the cemetery. The area is fenced and there is a tabernacle which makes the tract easier to locate. These inscriptions were copied in 1967 and revised in November of 1978.

Religion==

From "Patchwork of Memories" (Historical Sketches of Comanche County, Texas) by the Heritage Division Committee in Chapter III about Communities on pages 47 & 48 it states that Indian Creek community is located four miles East of Comanche on a country road about one and one-half miles southeast of Highway 67. This community was one of the first settlements made in Comanche County. It was founded in 1851 by John A. McGuire (father of Jesse M. McGuire). The Indian Creek Methodist Church was formed in 1880 with Rev. H.B: Henry as pastor. Land for a building was given by J.M. (Mart) McGuire.

Also from "Patchwork of Memories in Chapter V about Churches on pages 90 & 91 it states that the Indian Creek Methodist Church really had its beginning inside "Double-Pen" stockade. In 1880, after the passing of Indian raids, the church was organized with Rev. H.B. Henry, Pastor, and a one-room plank building was erected on land deeded by J.M. (Mart) McGuire.

From "Comanche County, Texas Country Cemeteries", copied & compiled by Weldon I. Hudson, 2807 Cedar Park, Fort Worth, Texas 76118 & Shirley Brittain Cawyer, P.O. Box 164, Stephenville, Texas 76401 on page 83 about the location of the Indian Creek Cemetery it tells that the State Historical Survey Committee erected a marker at this cemetery in 1968. It reads in part, as follows; "Site of Indian Creek Community. One of the first settlements in Comanche County, founded in 1851 by John A McGuire. The first public building here was a stockade that enclosed several log cabins. Named "Double Pens' for its double walls. It was a store house for emergency supplies of grain, water, and other food to be used by the settlers when they took refuge there during Indian raids. When the men were away, the women and children slept at the Double Pens. Church services were also held inside the walls, and a school was organized in 1876. The first teacher was R.W. Welborne. The Indian Creek Methodist Church was formed in 1880 with the Rev. H.B. Henry as Pastor. Land for the building was given by J.M. (Mart) McGuire . The first burial in the cemetery was made in 1880. The land, then the property of R.C. Coker, was given to the church by the later owner, J.H. Watson."
